[Subsidiary]

compiled and kept and, when he makes such a direction, the existing register or registers of electors shall be void and of no effect from the date specified in the direction.

Application to enter name in register

3. (1) Every person who desires and is entitled to be registered as an elector in any ward may make application in person to the Electoral Officer for the electoral district who shall, if he is satisfied that the applicant is entitled to be registered as an elector for that ward and is not registered as an elector in another ward, whether in that electoral district or elsewhere, enter the applicant's name and the date in the register of electors for that ward.

(2) When the Electoral Officer has entered the applicant's name in the register of electors in pursuance of subregulation (1), the applicant shall place his signature alongside the entry and the Electoral Officer shall allocate to the entry a number.

Removal of names

4. (1) An Electoral Officer shall strike off from a register of electors the name of every person appearing thereon where he is satisfied the person—

- (a) has died; or
- (b) has become disqualified or is no longer qualified to be registered as an elector for that electoral district; or
- (c) is no longer resident within the electoral district:

Provided that at least 7 days before taking action to strike off the name of a person pursuant to paragraph (b) the Electoral Officer shall take such steps as he considers reasonable to inform that person of the action he proposes to take.

(2) An Electoral Officer shall strike off from a register of electors the name of a person where he is satisfied that that person's name appears in the register of electors for another ward, whether in that electoral district or elsewhere, and an Electoral Officer who enters the name of any applicant in a register of electors shall enquire of the applicant whether his name appears in the register of electors for another ward and, if the applicant answers in the affirmative, the Electoral Officer shall give notice to the Electoral Officer responsible for the compilation of the register of electors for that ward, who shall strike off the applicant's name from that register.

Closing of registers

5. (1) Whenever an election becomes necessary, the Electoral Officer shall close the registers of electors for every ward in which a poll is to be taken on the 14th day before such poll is taken and shall not re-open the said registers until the day after the poll has been taken or when a further election is to be held pursuant to regulation 26, until the day after the poll has been taken in that further election:

Provided that the Electoral Officer, if instructed by the Chief Electoral Officer, shall re-open the relevant register on any day before the poll and register as an elector any person who has satisfied the Chief Electoral Officer that he was unable to register before the closing of the register by reason of storm or any other unforeseeable cause whatsoever, whether of the like nature or otherwise.

(2) When a register of electors is closed in pursuance of subregulation (1), no addition or alteration thereto shall be made save to make an addition or alteration in pursuance of an application made under regulation 6 or to correct an error or omission or to strike off the name of a person appearing where the Electoral Officer is satisfied that that person's name also appears in the register of electors for another ward, whether in that electoral district or elsewhere.

Procedure as to objections

6. (1) Any person who has applied in pursuance of regulation 3 to be registered as an elector in any ward and whose name has not been entered in the

(2) Upon receiving a claim under subregulation (1), the Electoral Officer shall make such inquiry as he may deem advisable and after consideration of the claim and all evidence available thereon he shall, within a period of 7 days from receipt of the claim, either inform the claimant he has dismissed the claim or enter the name of the claimant in the register of electors for the ward.

(3) Where a claimant's name has been inserted in pursuance of subregulation (2), the Electoral Officer shall cause the claimant to place his signature alongside the entry and allocate to the entry a number.

When the result of the poll has been ascertained, the Electoral Officer shall forthwith declare to be elected the candidate, or in the case of an election for which 2 or 3 members are to be elected, the 2 or 3 candidates as the case may be, for whom the greatest number of votes have been cast, and shall also declare the number of votes for each and every candidate, whether elected or not:

Provided that the Electoral Officer shall not declare any candidate to be elected unless the number of votes cast in favour of that candidate is in excess of one-half of the total number of ballot papers counted in accordance with regulation 19.

Further election in certain circumstances

26. (1) If, by virtue of the operation of the proviso to regulation 25, a vacancy or vacancies remain to be filled after the result of the poll has been ascertained or an equality of votes is found to exist between any candidates so that (by virtue of the provisions of regulation 25 or subregulation (3)) an addition of a vote would entitle either one of them but not the other to be declared elected, the Electoral Officer shall report the fact to the Electoral Commission, in the case of an election of a member of the Maneaba ni Maungatabu, or the Chief Electoral Officer, in the case of an election of a member of a council, who shall order that another election shall be held and a poll taken on such day as it or he shall specify for the purpose of determining which of the candidates who failed to secure a number of votes in excess of one-half of the total number of ballot papers counted, or between whom the equality of votes was found to exist, shall fill the vacancy or vacancies in question. At such election only the candidates who failed to secure a number of votes in excess of one-half of the total number of ballot papers counted and who qualify under subregulation (2), or between whom the equality of votes was found to exist, shall be entitled to be candidates and no new nominations shall be required in respect of any of them.

(2) Where another election is to be held by virtue of the operation of the proviso to regulation 25, of the candidates who failed to secure a number of votes in excess of one-half of the total number of ballot papers counted, the following shall be entitled to be candidates at such election—

- (a) where 1 vacancy remains to be filled, the 3 candidates for whom the greatest number of votes were cast in the 1st election;
- (b) where 2 vacancies remain to be filled, the 4 candidates for whom the greatest number of votes were cast in the 1st election;
- (c) where 3 vacancies remain to be filled, the 5 candidates for whom the greatest number of votes were cast in the 1st election, and in ascertaining the candidates for whom the greatest number of votes were cast for the purpose of this paragraph, a candidate who received a number of votes in excess of one-half of the total number of ballot papers counted and thereby was declared to be elected in the 1st election shall be ignored, and where there is an equality of votes between candidates such that a determination of the correct number of candidates for whom the greatest number of votes were cast is not possible, all of the candidates between whom there was the equality of votes shall be candidates.

(3) When the result of the poll at such further election has been ascertained the Electoral Officer shall declare to be elected the candidate, or if there are 2 or

[Subsidiary]

3 vacancies remaining to be filled the 2 or 3 candidates, for whom the greatest number of votes have been cast at such further election, and shall also declare the number of votes for each and every candidate at that election whether elected or not.

27. At the conclusion of an election the Electoral Officer shall--

- (a) notify the successful candidates in writing; and
- (b) notify the Chief Electoral Officer of the result; and

Powers of polling assistants

30. Where in these regulations any act or thing is required or authorised to be done in the presence of the candidates or agents appointed by them, the non-attendance of any candidate or agent at the time and place appointed for the purpose shall not, if that act or thing is otherwise properly done, invalidate the act or thing done.

Non-attendance of agents not to invalidate proceedings

31. No election shall be invalid by reason of non-compliance with these regulations (or any regulations amending or replacing these regulations), if it appears that the election was conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in any such regulations, or that such non-compliance did not affect the result of the election.
